

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

INTRODUCTION

As the years pass and the urgent affairs of the present increase upon us, it is only natural that we should give but slight attention to the things that do not materially affect our immediate interests.

Today very many people seem to give but little thought to the preservation of their family history or genealogy, few having more than a slight knowledge of their ancestry farther back than a generation or two.

In the past, vital records were poorly kept in many states, rendering it very difficult at the present time to obtain desired information from the early records of the various commonwealths, and it would seem that in the future it will be very difficult for many people to establish definite ancestral lines unless present generations take precaution in preserving same.

It is my purpose to so fix and establish the ancestral lines of John Sanders of Ft. Covington, N. Y., that all his descendants may trace their Sanders' ancestry back to those who first came to America. In his ancestral lines will be found the following names: Grafton, Page, Green, Rowell, Marsh, Pendor, Morrill, Colby, Sargent, Ambrose, and Clement. After showing his ancestry the work then contains a complete list of all his descendants for three generations.

THE SANDERS ANCESTRY

First Generation of the Sanders Family in America.

JOHN SANDERS

There are many superficial and conflicting records regarding JOHN SANDERS, one of the founders of the Massachusetts Bay Colony; in some cases, his record has been confused with that of his son and namesake, who, on coming to the New England colony, settled at Salem, Mass. It has remained for Mrs. Sarah (Sanders) Smith, to publish in the "Founders of the Massachusetts Bay Colony" an authentic history of JOHN SANDERS, from data secured from the state and probate records of Maine, Massachusetts and New Hampshire; from Colonial records and from the parish records of his home in England.

From the church register at Weeke, Downton Parish, County Wilts (Wiltshire), Eng. is the following:

Baptisms.

1604. Richard, son of John Sanders.

1606. Dorothea, dau. of John Sanders.

Burials.

1609. Ales Sanders, the wife of John Sanders of Weeke.

(There would seem to be an error either in the entry of the Christian name of the wife of John Sanders or in transcription, for the name of his second wife was "Ales." However, both wives may have borne the same name.)

Marriages.

1610. John Sanders and Ales Coles were md. the fourth day of Feb.

Baptisms.

- 1613. John Sanders, son of John Sanders of Weeke, 26th March
- 1614. Elizabeth, dau. of John Sanders of Weeke.
- 1615. Sarah, dau. of John Sanders of Weeke.
- 1617. Joseph, son of John Sanders of Weeke.
- 1622. Moses, son of John Sanders of Weeke.

Under date of June, 1622, the colonial records of the Plymouth Colony note: "Came into our harbor two ships of Mr. Weston's, the Charity, 100 tons; the Swan, 30 tons; with letters of April 10, and fifty or sixty men, sent at his own charge, under Capt. John Sanders, overseer, to settle a plantation in the Massachusetts bay, for which he has procured a patent."

The colony settled at Weymouth in the fall of the year. After suffering privation and hardships, their enterprise was abandoned, and in the Colonial Records of London, under date of May 23, 1623, we read: "Captain Sanders and Company arrived at Southampton." Thus ended the disaster of the Weymouth Plantation.

Captain John Sanders seems to have been undaunted by his failure in 1623, to establish the Weymouth Colony. During the following five or six years, he made several voyages to the Mass. Bay Colony, generally in command of his ship.

In 1628, his son John, came to the Colony as a passenger in the merchant ship, "Margaret," and settled at Salem, Mass., and on July 27, 1635, Capt. John¹ Sanders arrived. His stay in the Colony was short, for it is recorded that in the following year, he returned to New England and in conjunction with William and Robert Sanders, and others, having received a grant, founded the colony of Hampton, Mass. (later N. H.)

Whether the wife of John Sanders Sr. accompanied him to New England is not stated; but she died about this time. In 1638, he was sent to England to obtain a patent to found another colony, and while there, he married Hester Rolfe. From the Colonial Records of the Custom House of Southampton, we read that "John Rolle (Rolfe) aged 50, of Melchit Park, Wiltshire, together with his wife, Ann, and daughter, Hester, wife of John Sanders, took passage for the Colonies." On this return trip, John Sanders brought his daughter, Sarah, who, soon afterward married Maj. Robert Pike. His daughter, Elizabeth, having married Henry Wolcott, did not come to the Colony until a later date.

He was successful in his mission, for he, together with eleven others (including Simon Bradstreet, Daniel Dennison, Christopher Bailey, Samuel Winsley and Samuel Dudley) were granted a plantation on the southerly side of Hampton, to be called "Merrimack" (afterwards changed to Salisbury). It was a royal grant and a royal subdivision for each of the proprietors, covering 75 miles, extending from the Atlantic Ocean to the Merrimack and Hampton Rivers. In 1640, John¹ Sanders was appointed surveyor of the grant. Salisbury and Hampton were joined to the jurisdiction of Ipswich—each of them to send a grand juryman once a year to Ipswich.

The sterling qualities and natural leadership of Capt. John Sanders were well-known and recognized by the early settlers. His business enterprises extended through that part of Massachusetts and New Hampshire, where his vast properties were located. We find him administering to many wills and estates, settling town disputes in Hampton, Salisbury and Haverhill, and attending to his duties at the General Court. He later returned to England, where he owned an estate in Downton Parish, leaving his brother-in-law, Richard Dole of Newbury, his attorney.

The vital records of Salisbury give the following births of the children of John and Hester (Rolfe) Sanders:

Hester b. Sept. 5, 1639.
John b. July 1, 1641; d. young.
Ruth b. Dec. 16, 1642.
John b. Dec. 10, 1644.

The records of Newbury give the following: (Newbury was across the river northward from Salisbury) :

Sarah b. Aug. 20, 1646.
Mary b. June 12, 1649
Abigail b. Apr. 12, 1651.
Joseph b. Aug. 28, 1653.
Elizabeth b. Jan. 26, 1654.

SECOND GENERATION

John Sanders (John)

John Sanders, born at Weeke, Eng., March 26, 1613) came to Salem, New England, June 28, 1628-9, in the "Margaret," from Plymouth, Eng., in company with John Endicott and his party. He came under the protection of Robert Coles (his uncle), who became one of the wealthiest investors in the Colony, at that time.

In 1629, he united with the first church in Salem. In 1636 he was made freeman, and received a grant of 40 acres of freemen's land, adjoining that of his uncle. The grant is the present location of the south side of Washington Square, adjacent to the Common. Upon the knoll side of the lot facing the Common, he built his house.

About this time (1636) he married Priscilla Grafton, daughter of Capt. Joseph and Mary Grafton. (See Grafton, page —.)

He died at Salem during the latter part of 1643. From deeds and his will, we find that he described himself as coming from "Weeke in ye parish of Downton, in ye county of Wiltz, Eng." The will, dated Oct.

12, 1643 (probated at Salem, Nov. 10, 1643) was sealed with the crest of the Sanders Coat of Arms. His widow married Feb. 20, 1644, John Gardner of Salem.

The children of John and Priscilla (Grafton) Sanders were: John b. Dec. 1640; d. 1694. Md. Nov. 5, 1651, Hannah Pickman. James b. 1643-4 (posthumous).

THIRD GENERATION

James Sanders (John, John).

James Sanders was born in Salem, Mass. in 1643, after his father's death. As a young man, he moved to Haverhill, Mass., where, on Jan. 14, 1669, he married Sarah Page, daughter of John and Mary (Marsh) Page, also of Haverhill. (See Page, page —.)

In 1692, he was appointed Highway Surveyor. In 1701, a garrison was ordered kept at his house, as a protection against the Indians. He represented Haverhill at the General Court in 1706, 1707 and 1709.

After the death of his wife Sarah (March 23, 1685), he married, 2nd, Oct. 20, 1687, Hannah Tuxbury, of Newbury. There were seven children of the first marriage and five of the second marriage.

His will, dated Nov. 1, 1718, was probated Jan. 10, 1722; his death having occurred at Haverhill, Dec. 9, 1721.

The children of James and Sarah (Page) Sanders were:

James b. May 30, 1671; d. young.

John b. June 6, 1672; md. Mary Sargeant. *

Sarah b. Aug. 7, 1674, md. Jonathan Eaton.

Eliz. b. Nov. 28, 1676; d. in infancy.

James b. Apr. 24, 1679; md. Elizabeth Whittier.

Avery b. May 22, 1682; d. in infancy.

*Avery b. Aug. 3, 1683; md. Abigail Green.

branch of the Sanders family, p. 19 for children of John &
Mary Sargeant Sanders.*

FOURTH GENERATION

Avery Sanders (James, John, John).

Avery Sanders, (b. Aug. 3, 1683), was less than two years of age at the time of his mother's death. He remained in Haverhill, Mass., and there married Abigail Green, daughter of Peter and Mary Green, also of Haverhill. (See Green, page ——.) The exact date of the marriage is not given in the Vital Records of the town; merely "before 1710." The children's births are recorded in the town records as follows:

Abigail b. Feb. 18, 1710.

*Jonathan b. Feb. 23, 1712; m. Sarah Rowell (see Rowell)

Moses b. May 23, 1714.

Ruth b. June 23, 1718.

Peter b. Mar. 18, 1724.

FIFTH GENERATION

Jonathan Sanders (Avery, James, John, John).

Jonathan Sanders, (born Feb. 23, 1711-12), on reaching manhood, removed from Haverhill to Hampton, N. H. According to town records, he was there as late as 1732. He next located in Chester, situated west of Hampton. When this latter town was incorporated in 1719, more than half the grantees were from Hampton and Hampton Falls. Others came from Haverhill and Newbury, Mass., but there were none of the name of Sanders among the first settlers.

Here at Chester he married Sarah Rowell, daughter of John and Elizabeth Rowell, who in 1729, had removed to Chester from Salisbury, (see Rowell, page—). Two years after the birth of the youngest child (Avery, 1761), the family removed to Haverhill, N. H., on the Connecticut River, where the father, Jonathan, purchased 100 acres; the purchase lay in the disputed territory between the towns of Haverhill and Piermont. It is said that he was the first school teacher at Haverhill and was known as "Master Sanders." He was very active in local affairs, serving as Selectman, etc. The following inscription is upon his tombstone in the Ladd St. Cemetery, "Died Jan. 1st, 1774, in the 64th year of his age." His four sons all served in the Revolutionary War.
